

Preserving the Past... Paving Way for the Future

The Frank Thompson Building has held a very special place in the history of NC State University and the hearts and memories of our students and community for more than 80 years. From its early days as the school gymnasium and home to the "Red Terrors" men's basketball team — to serving as the site for countless dances and socials, the ROTC rifle range, a temporary home for the Music Department and current home to our crafts and theatre programs — the Thompson Building has worn many hats. The renovation of this campus landmark will transform "Old Thompson Gym" into a world class, state-of-the-art facility for The Crafts Center and University Theatre.

You can become a permanent part of the Thompson Building's legacy with the purchase of a personalized engraved brick to pave either the Theatre or The Crafts Center walkway entrance. Become part of Thompson's history or pay tribute, honor or memorialize a friend, family or loved one. By supporting the campaign to renovate Thompson, you are paving the way for the future of the arts and the students at NC State!

Brick orders will only be accepted through
SEPTEMBER 30, 2008.
