

Proper Operation of a Disconnect Switch to Reduce Risk of Injury

WRONG

Never stand in front of or directly face a switch

CORRECT

Stand to the side of the switch and face away.

When pulling the handle on a disconnect switch or operating a circuit breaker, always consider the possibility of an arc explosion. Stand to the side and turn your face away when throwing the switch, if possible. Always wear the correct personal protective equipment.