

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

Thomas H. Griffin, better known as Tommy, is Director of Undergraduate Admissions. He has held this position since January 2003. He was previously Senior Associate Director of Undergraduate Admissions. Tommy began as an admissions counselor in the early 1980s. He brings over 19 years of admissions experience to the Division.

In his current position, Tommy oversees the receipt of more than 18,000 applications for undergraduate admission (freshman and transfer) to NC State, and a staff that handles and evaluates thousands of transcripts, application fees and other documentation for potential student admits every day.

Tommy is a native of North Carolina. He holds degrees from North Carolina State University (B.A. 1983), and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (M.B.A. 1988).

Active in several professional admissions organizations, Tommy has held leadership positions in the Carolinas Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, serving as a member of the program committee, the executive committee, as chair of the finance and auditing committee, and as Treasurer. He was recently elected as the North Carolina representative to the Southern Region of the College Board.

Tommy has a particular interest in the use of technology in admissions and recruitment. He has presented on this topic at several conferences.

Last Updated: March 2005