

NC State University
Undergraduate Science Teaching Lab Phase I renamed to: Marye Anne Fox Science Teaching Laboratory

Bond Funds	$ 30,215,400
Other Appropriations	$ 1,897,500
Other Sources	$ 0
Floyd Reversion	$ 4,586,000
Total Project Budget	$ 36,698,900

Scope: The Undergraduate Science Teaching Lab (USTL) project at main campus consists of the construction of 70,700 gsf of instructional laboratories and classrooms for chemistry/physics. Along with the construction of 40,500 gsf of instructional laboratories, classrooms and greenhouses for horticultural sciences.

Designer: Little and Associates Architects

Construction Contract Type: Single Prime

Contractor: R.N. Rouse

Status:

The teaching greenhouses at Method Road are complete.

The greenhouses at Horticultural Field are complete.

Construction phase I is complete.

Phase I is complete.

USTL Phase II is complete.

Minority Participation: Total 14 %

UNC Bond Program