CAREER SYMPOSIUM
FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS AND POST-DOCTORAL SCHOLARS

Saturday, November 2
8:30am-3:30pm | Great Hall, FPG Student Union
RSVP/$15 required for this event by October 28 | http://tinyurl.com/n5jp853

Opening Keynote: Building Professional Relationships
Taffye Benson Clayton, EdD
Vice Provost for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs & Chief Diversity Officer, UNC-CH

Dr. Clayton is known nationally for faculty diversity recruitment and retention, strategically positioning and integrating diversity and inclusion in higher education institutions, building corporate partnerships and translating corporate diversity and inclusion best practices for useful application in higher education.

Co-Sponsored by
UNC University Career Services
The Graduate School
Office of Postdoctoral Affairs
TIBBS Office of Science, Training and Diversity
Duke University
The Graduate School
Career Center
Duke University
The Graduate School
Office of Postdoctoral Affairs
University Graduate Student Association

Sessions will include:

CV/Resume Development and Effective Cover Letters | Networking | Interviewing for Academic Positions | Interviewing for Positions Across the Career Spectrum | What’s Your Career Strategy? Tips for the Undecided Student | Job Searching Beyond the Tenure Track | Job Search Tips for International Students and Scholars | Using Social Media in your Job Search | Choosing the Right Postdoc | Negotiating the Job Offer | How to Make Small Talk

Continental breakfast, lunch, and afternoon coffee talk!