

Kookmin University, South Korea

On July 20, 2009 Dr. Sung Woo Lee, President of Kookmin University in Seoul, Korea visited North Carolina State University along with Dr. Duckjoon Chang, Dean of International and Public Relations and Dr. Hyun-sik Ahn, Dean of Information and Telecommunication. The visitors met with university administrators to begin a dialogue about opportunities for academic cooperation and exchange between the two universities. During a meeting with Dr. Bailian Li, Vice Provost for International Affairs and Dr. Susan Herrera, Director of the Global Education President Lee expressed interest in student exchange and faculty exchange, as well as distance education options. Kookmin University's programs in design, engineering and the humanities provide areas of collaboration with NC State. President Lee also met with Dr. Tom Miller, Vice Provost for Distance Education and Learning Technologies and Mr. Marc Hoit, Vice Chancellor of Information Technology to demonstrate technical capabilities of Kookmin's distance learning programs.

President Dr. Lee and Vice Provost Dr. Li

