

Seoul National University

On July 17, 2009 Dr. Tae Jin Kang, Dean of the College of Engineering at Seoul National University visited NC State while in Raleigh attending the US-Korea Conference 2009 of the Korean Scientists and Engineers Association. His visit to NC State focused on deepening connections between NC State and Seoul National University, particularly in engineering through ESL training for students within his college. He met with Dr. Louis Martin-Vega, Dean of the College of Engineering as well as Dr. Jeffrey Braden, Dean of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences to discuss opportunities for collaboration. Prof. Kang is also president of the NCSU Korea Alumni Association with more than 350 members in Korea. During the visit he also met with Mr. Nevin Kessler, Vice Chancellor for University Advancement and Ms. Erin Cleghorn, Associate Executive Director of Alumni Affairs to discuss how to build upon the existing network of NC State alums in Korea.