

Membership in Phi Kappa Phi

Admission to the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is by invitation only and requires nomination and approval by a chapter in accordance with the bylaws of both the chapter and the national Society. Both require superior scholarship and good character as criteria for membership.

Purpose

The primary objective of the national Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is the recognition and encouragement of superior scholarship in all academic disciplines. The Society is convinced that in recognizing and honoring those persons of good character who have excelled in scholarship, in whatever field, it will stimulate others to strive for excellence. Moreover, the Society serves the interests of the student capable of excellence by insistence that in order to acquire a chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, an institution provide the means and atmosphere conducive to academic excellence.

Fun Facts about Phi Kappa Phi

- Founded in 1897 at the University of Maine, Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest, largest, and most selective all-discipline honor society.
- The Society's mission is "to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others."
- The motto of Phi Kappa Phi is Philosophía Krateítō Phōtôn, translated "Let the love of learning rule humanity."
- Those elected to membership include upper 7.5 percent last-term juniors (having completed at least seventy-two semester hours) and upper 10 percent seniors, along with outstanding graduate students, faculty, professional staff, and alumni.
- Since its founding, more than 1 million scholars have been inducted into Phi Kappa Phi.
- Approximately 3,000 faculty and staff volunteers give of their time to serve as officers of local Phi Kappa Phi chapters.
- Nearly 300 chapters of Phi Kappa Phi exist on the campuses of colleges and universities across the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines.
- The Society's official symbols include the Phi Kappa Phi key, ribbon, and seal.
- More than $500,000 in national and local scholarships is awarded annually.

Emeritus Membership

June Brotherton

June Brotherton served as Chapter President in 2000-01. She retired from the University in December 2003 after nearly three decades of service.

Ms. Brotherton started her career as a historical researcher and audiovisual assistant for the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources in Raleigh while pursuing her Bachelor of Science degree in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at North Carolina State University.

She spent four years as an editor and writer for publications that included Georgia Farmer, South Carolina Farmer-Grower, Pecan South, Carolina Country, and an alumni magazine at NC State. This was followed by more than a decade as a public relations and communications specialist for the city of Charlotte, for the North Carolina Department of Agriculture, and for NC State's College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. Her administrative positions at NCSU included assistant to the chancellor, head of the Department of Agricultural Communications in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, executive assistant to the chancellor, director of government relations, associate vice chancellor for extension, and assistant to the chancellor for government relations.

Prior to her retirement, Governor Michael Easley awarded Ms. Brotherton the Order of the Longleaf Pine for Ms. Brotherton's service to the state.
