

NC State University - Pre-Law Services

ETHICS, INTEGRITY & ISSUES OF MISCONDUCT

When: Thursday, October 1

Where: 210 Park Shops

Time: 7:00pm

Looking at these issues from a variety of perspectives – it may surprise you regarding the depth and breadth of the need for disclosure

This discussion will provide individuals whose plans may include law school with an in-depth review regarding how integrity, ethical judgment and issues of misconduct are viewed by the University, within the application process, in law school, and as an individual takes the next step of taking the Bar Exam and practicing law. This session is designed for all who are considering law school from first year to seniors.

Panel:

- Turi Plisch, Associate Director, NC State Office of Student Conduct,
- Pam Gerace, Attorney, NC State Student Legal Services
- Jennifer Kott, Director of Admissions, University of North Carolina, Law School Member of the ABA Misconduct Committee
- Alan Schneider, Attorney, Cheshire Parker Firm
- Gail C. Arneke, Chair of the NC Board of Law Examiners

The event is open to the public with no pre-registration required.
