

State Park Leadership School

A comprehensive two-year certificate program for state park managers

January 17-20, 2010

**Self-paced study module August 2009 – January 2010*

Wilson Lodge
Oglebay Resort and Conference Center
Wheeling, West Virginia

By attending this highly experiential school you will be exposed to will cover a diversity of subject areas that are crucial to becoming an effective professional state park manager.

Registration is limited to 50 participants. A full brochure will be available late spring.

"This is an experience that I will never forget. The opportunity to network with state park professionals from across the country is truly invaluable."

- Dustin M. Ward, Natural Resource Officer,
El Dorado State Park, El Dorado, KS

Why You Should Attend

- ✦ Gain an in-depth understanding of the critical core competencies required to manage a state park.
- ✦ Gain a thorough awareness of the traditions, trends, and future challenges associated with managing a state park.
- ✦ Participate in an informative forum and network for the ongoing exchange of important knowledge, ideas, information, and experiences.

Sponsored by:

National Association of
State Park Directors

Administered by:

NC State University
Parks, Recreation & Tourism Management
Office of Professional Development

Hosted by:

Oglebay Resort &
Conference Center

