

State Park Leadership School

A two-year certificate program for state park managers

January 18-21, 2009

**Self-paced study module August 2008 – January 2009*

Wilson Lodge at Oglebay Resort and Conference Center
Wheeling, West Virginia

This highly experiential school will cover a diversity of subject areas that are crucial for effective professional state park management.

Registration is limited to 50 participants.
A full brochure will be available late spring.

Why You Should Attend

- ✦ Gain an in-depth understanding of the core competencies required to manage a state park.
- ✦ Gain a thorough awareness of the traditions, trends, and future challenges associated with managing a state park.
- ✦ Participate in a forum and network for the ongoing exchange of knowledge, ideas, information, and experiences.

Sponsored by:

National Association of State Park Directors

Hosted by:

Oglebay Resort and Conference Center

For more information, go to ContinuingEducation.ncsu.edu