

Costs

The total cost for the 2012 program:

Course fee*$1,995
(Includes tuition, books, insurance, social activities, NC State Student Center activities, gym pass, and computer lab fee.)

Residence hall fee*$1,450

Weekend meals are on your own (approximately)$300

Incidental personal expenses such as laundry and entertainment are not included.

A $400 deposit, which is applied to the course fee, must be included with the application. Students must pay the balance for the tuition and the residence hall by the first day of the Institute by cash, US check, American Express travelers checks, or credit card.

If you cancel your registration, $350 of the deposit will be refunded provided notification of cancellation is received on or before June 4, 2012. After that date, no refund is possible.

Health Services

Insurance for emergency care is included in the course fee. With the provided insurance, students can receive on-campus medical care from Student Health Services, which is open Monday through Friday, 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. A physician is on call at other hours. Students must submit a completed medical consent form in order to be treated at Student Health Services.

Parking

A campus parking permit can be purchased for $50*. A permit is required if you will be parking a car on campus.

Testing

Proficiency tests are given at the beginning of the Institute to place students in appropriate classes at the elementary, intermediate, and advanced levels.

The institutional Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) will be offered at the end of the Institute. Students who wish to take the test will sign up with the campus TOEFL administrator during the first week of the Institute. The $30 non-refundable fee* will be payable at that time. The scores are valid only at North Carolina State University.

Application Requirements and Procedures

Persons wishing to apply for admission to the Institute should complete and return the enclosed application, with a $400 deposit to the following address:

North Carolina State University
Office of Professional Development
Box 7401
Raleigh, North Carolina 27695-7401 USA

A copy of the application form and certificate of financial responsibility can be found at our website:
<http://www.ncsu.edu/mckimmon/cpe/smrinst.html>

Note To Applicants Who Require An I-20/Visa:

Candidates are strongly recommended to submit their applications before May 1, 2012. Applications received after that date may not have enough time to secure the mandatory visa.

For More Information About the Program Content

Email Toby Brody, Program Director, at
toby_brody@ncsu.edu

To Register

Call (USA) 1.919.515.2261
Fax (USA) 1.919.515.7614
Email ContinuingEducation@ncsu.edu
On-line
<http://www.ncsu.edu/mckimmon/cpe/smrinst.html>

* Fees are subject to change.

Admission to North Carolina State University Regular Session

Admission to the Institute does not imply admission to any other NC State University academic program, or to any other branch of the University of North Carolina. Undergraduate students who wish to apply to NC State for the fall semester must apply separately to:
Office of Admissions
North Carolina State University
Box 7103
Raleigh, North Carolina 27695-7103 USA

Website: <http://www.admissions.ncsu.edu/>

Students wishing to enter the Graduate School must apply separately to:
Graduate School
North Carolina State University
Box 7102
Raleigh, North Carolina 27695-7102 USA

Website: www.ncsu.edu/grad/

Announcing Year 2013 Program

To receive an application for the the July 1–August 2, 2013 program, send your written request to:
North Carolina State University
Office of Professional Development
Box 7401
Raleigh, North Carolina 27695-7401 USA

Or email your request to:
ContinuingEducation@ncsu.edu

A brochure with application form for the 2013 program will be mailed to you in fall 2012. You may also obtain a copy from our website:
<http://www.ncsu.edu/mckimmon/cpe/smrinst.html>

Office of Professional Development
Call (USA) 1.919.515.2261
Fax (USA) 1.919.515.7614
Email: ContinuingEducation@ncsu.edu
Website: <http://ContinuingEducation.ncsu.edu>

NC STATE UNIVERSITY

The English Language Program

Summer Institute in English

July 2 – August 3, 2012

North Carolina State University

Raleigh, North Carolina USA

Beginning to Advanced Levels Benefit From Intensive Communicative Instruction & Practice in the Use of American English

For Students, Business People, and Professionals Who Desire More Advanced Proficiency

Emphasizing:

- Speaking
- Listening
- Grammar
- Writing

Offering Elective Classes in:

- TOEFL Preparation
- Pronunciation
- American Short Stories
- Presentation Skills
- Vocabulary and Reading Improvement

Sponsored by:
Office of Professional Development and
Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

About the Program

The Summer Institute in English, part of the English as a Second Language program at North Carolina State University, is designed for students, business people, and professionals pursuing more advanced proficiency in English.

The Institute provides intensive communicative instruction and practice in the use of American English. The Institute emphasizes speaking, listening, grammar, and writing. Elective classes are offered in TOEFL preparation, pronunciation, presentation skills, American short stories, reading and vocabulary development. In addition to classroom instruction, a computerized language laboratory is available for student use and is a supplement to classroom instruction.

Besides intensive class work, the Institute provides a regular non-academic evening program and social events to help students adjust to the area, provide opportunities to practice English skills, and engage in cross-cultural experiences. Find out more at <http://www.ncsu.edu/mckimmon/cpe/smrinst.html>

The University

Located in Raleigh, North Carolina, NC State University is a unit of the consolidated University of North Carolina system. Long known as a center of research and teaching in engineering, agriculture, textiles, forestry, architecture, business management, and the humanities and social sciences, NC State University has earned an international reputation for excellence. Learn more about the university at <http://www.ncsu.edu>.

The City

In 2011, Businessweek.com named Raleigh "The Best American City." Other recent accolades for Raleigh include being rated #1 Best Place to Live by MSNBC, #1 Best Place for Young Adults by Biz-journals, and #2 Best City to Live, Work and Play by Kiplinger's.

Known for its educational and cultural institutions, Raleigh and the surrounding area boast outstanding universities (NC State University, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and Duke University). There are many excellent smaller universities, colleges and cultural attractions such as the North Carolina Museum of History, Museum of Natural Sciences, Museum of Art, and the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra.

With miles of beautiful, unspoiled beaches, North Carolina is home to the Cape Hatteras and Cape Lookout National Seashores. Located in the Piedmont of North Carolina, Raleigh is centrally located and only a two-hour drive east to the Atlantic Ocean. Located a few hours' drive to the west are the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Washington, DC is only a five-hour trip by car. See everything to do in Raleigh at <http://www.visitraleigh.com>.

Eligibility

Applicants must be at least 16 years old. All levels of proficiency in English, from beginning to advanced to pre-university studies, are welcome to attend. Students are placed into classes according to proficiency levels.

Students who do not arrive by the beginning date of the program must inform the Institute of their date of arrival. The Institute retains the right to refuse admission to a student who arrives more than one week late.

Courses of Instruction

Students at similar levels of proficiency are grouped into small classes for instruction in oral skills, grammar and writing. Classes are held 23 hours per week. Students are encouraged to use the computer laboratory to complement course work.

In addition to regular courses, a variety of elective courses are also offered, including:

- TOEFL Preparation
- Pronunciation
- American Short Stories
- Presentation Skills
- Reading and Vocabulary Development

Although all classroom work is conducted on the NC State University campus, attendance at the Institute does not carry academic credit.

Housing

Students who request on-campus housing will receive a housing contract for an air-conditioned residence hall. Students will room together, two to a room.

To encourage their use of English, students of the same language background generally will not be placed together in a room.

The residence hall will be available two days prior to the beginning of the Institute. Students are encouraged to arrive on one of these three days and check in so that they may have time to unpack and have a day of rest before proficiency testing begins on the first day. If a student needs to arrive prior to Saturday, June 30, 2012, there will be an additional $25 per early arrival day added to the housing fee.

Participants and staff of the 2011 Summer Institute in English pose for a class photo.

The residence hall will issue sheets, pillowcases, and bath towels to each student. Students are responsible for keeping their linens clean.

Students who wish to live in apartments off-campus must find accommodations for themselves. Several air-conditioned apartment complexes and hotels are located within walking distance of the university. The Institute does not have the ability to place students with families in Raleigh.

Meals

The residence hall fee includes three meals a day, Monday through Friday. Food service on Saturday and Sunday is available at on-campus cafeterias and snack bars, as well as many nearby off-campus restaurants.

Clothing

Raleigh has a relatively mild climate year-round; however, summer is usually quite hot and humid. Lightweight clothing is recommended.