Dear Colleagues,

Meet us in the Triangle this fall! Make your plans now, mark your calendars, make your hotel reservations, and begin looking at airfare!

Our meeting this year will take place in the Research Triangle Park, Durham, and Chapel Hill, North Carolina. The conference begins Thursday at the luxurious Sheraton Imperial in Research Triangle Park (RTP), with lunch and sessions for New Advisers and Veterans. Our Co-Host schools are North Carolina Central University and the University of North Carolina Schools of Law with Friday events being held at North Carolina Central University (NCCU) and Saturday's being held at University of North Carolina (UNC).

- Anne Brandt will update us all with the newest information from Law School Admissions Council
- Law Fair Friday afternoon at the Sheraton Imperial in RTP
- Friday night Special Plenary Gala will begin with a show at the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center followed by dinner at the Historic Carolina Inn
- " The Showcase of North Carolina Schools" on Saturday morning
- I encourage you to visit the area to get a feel for the place and things to do as you visit!

The material for the conference will be made available to you in a variety of forms. The SAPLA website will be under-construction this summer so all materials will be posted on my website, the hotel Registration website, and Council on Legal Education (CLEO), any changes will be posted on the website at NC State.

Registration forms are complete and the Preliminary program is complete, except for the confirmation of speakers. We will also be mailing the materials to many of you later in the summer. In order to be efficient we are hoping to send the information via a variety of email efforts, which include the Pre Law Advisers and Law School's list serve.

We have been working diligently within the region and with the CLEO staff and Glenn Bell, to spread the word to more contacts with many of the Historically Black Institutions, and have been able to engage more Pre Law advisers' interest in attending the event next fall. Advisers at the HBCU's will need to make contact with Law School Admissions Council, and Glenn Bell, at 215.968.1387 or gbell@lsac.org specifically, to coordinate information about support available for the conference.

The Special Plenary begins at the Morehead Planetarium followed by dinner at the Historic Carolina Inn. Take a minute to visit the site and see the exciting information about this location.

SAPLA is very excited to be coordinating our first Co-Hosted event with an Historically Black Law School, North Carolina Central University School of Law and at the State's oldest University, the University of North Carolina, School of Law and hope you are adding us to your fall plans!
