

Tuition Surcharge Waiver Request

Upon application by a student, the tuition surcharge can be waived if the student demonstrates that any of the following have substantially disrupted pursuit of a degree: a military service obligation, a serious medical debilitation, a short-term or long-term disability, or other extraordinary hardship. Additionally, the tuition surcharge may be modified based on proof of completion of college credit hours taken while enrolled as a high school student or based on completion of a baccalaureate degree at another institution.
