

Advisory board structure:

CESR has an Industrial Advisory Board (IAB) comprised of representatives of member companies that fund research projects inside the Center and have joined the center. The IAB meets annually.

6. Proposed unit's responsibility structure, including an organizational chart showing the relationship of the proposed unit to the existing organizations, the institution and the internal organization of the proposed unit

Organizational Chart

7. Budget

Budget estimates for the first year of operation, projections for the following four years

Budget estimate is below: