TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN:

REFERENCE: North Carolina State University Tax Exempt Status:
Section 115(a) of the IRS Code

North Carolina State University is a tax exempt State government institution under Internal Revenue Code Section 115(a). Since Section 115(a) status is granted by statute to the State governments, public institutions and corporations do not have specific written notice of tax exempt status from the Internal Revenue Service.

In 1970, the University sought and received a ruling by the Internal Revenue Service that the University is not a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the (Internal Service Code. Enclosed is a copy of the ruling. Note that the 1970 action addressed foundation status, not overall exempt status provided through statute pursuant to Section 115(a) of the Code.

The Federal Employer Identification Number assigned for payroll tax purposes (56-6000756) serves as the University's "tax exempt number".

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

27607

Based on the information you recently submitted, we have classified you as an organization that is not a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Your classification is based on the assumption that your operations will be as stated in your notification. Any changes in your purposes, character, or method of operation must be reported to your District Director so he may consider the effect on your status.

Sincerely yours,
